SOCIETY ATHLETE KILLED HIMSELF IN EVENING DRESS

Montclair Man Found in Bushes With Bullet Hole in His Head.

Workmen engaged in laying concrete eldewalks in South Prospect avenue, Verona, N. J., that across the line from ntelair, found the body of a young nan clad in evening dress in the bushes at the roadside when they went for tools to-day. In the gloved right hand of the corpse was clasped a revolver and there was a bullet hole through the head.

Within a short time the body was recognized as that of Ernest W. Perry. twenty-three years old, of Hillcrest avenee, Verona, one of the most widely known young en in the Montclair distriot, a football player, tennis player, golfer and society man.

Inquiry disclosed that Perry, who lived with his father, Oscar, and his uncle, George Perry, left his home Monday night, after changing from business atthe to evening dress. He did not anace his destination or intentions, and no inquiries along that line were made, as he was accustomed to going out of evenings.

He did not return to his home. Where spent Monday night and yesterday, cealed by a short light overcoat, is a mystery. It is not possible that he shot himself Monday night and the body lay where it was found until this morning, for the workmen would have found it for the workmen would have found it yesterday.

Oscar Perry says that domestic worry drove his son to suicide. Toung Perry was married in July, 1909, to Ruby Stryker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stryker, of No. 24 Ridgewood avenue. Glen Ridge. A daughter was born to, the couple in August, 1910. They separated in October, 1911, and young Perry went to live with his father and uncle while his wife returned to the while his wife returned to the home of her parents.

"IZZY THE PAINTER" ON TRIAL FOR ARSON

Accused of Starting a Fire in East One Hundred and Eighteenth Street Apartments. Counsellor Abraham Levy and Assist ant District-Attorney Weller agreed upon a jury in three hours this aftersoen which will decide the fate of Isidor Steln, better known as "Izzy the Paint-er," charged with being a daylight fire-

There was a fire last June at No. 63
East One Hundred and Eighteenth atrect in the apartments of Samuel Gold, who had insured a modest quantify of farmiture for 2,000. The fire was espected by Fire Marshal Prial on April
M, but according to him was postponed for a month because of a funeral in the neishborhood which made the danger to human life too great. On the date to which the fire was "postponed" Prial may Mrs. Gold deave the apartmant at noon, and says he saw "Izzy the Painter" enter immediately thereafter. He also saw Izzy, so he told the Grand Jury which indicted Stein, start the fire.

The fire marshal's office investigated 200 different incending fires in the course of its study of Tazy the Paint-

Captain Dead on Barge.

Workmen entering the cabin of Barge No. 40 of the Bradley Construction Company at Long Island City about noon to-day, found the sixty-year old captain, David S. Teer lying dead on his bunk, He had died of natural causes. A search of his clothing revealed a bankbook of the Hudson Trust Company of West Hoboken, with a balance of $332. The employers of the dead captain do not know if he has any relatives and the police are making an effort to find someone who will take charge of the body.

Shawls and Scarves

Imported from Far Distant Lands From Russia, Japan and India, some fine specimens of the hand work of the Far East.

"Orenburg" Shawls and Scarves

The deft fingered Russian peasant women knit these lace-like Shawls in the long winter evenings. So fine are the stitches, so intricate the patterns, so soft and fleecy the wool that an Orenburg Shawl is a possession prized by every woman to whom hand work appeals. So highly are these Shawls and Scarves regarded by the peasants that they are handed down from one generation to another. In fleecy white, natural brown or white-with-brown Orenburg Shawls and Scarves-range in price from $7.94 to $12.49 each.

EAST INDIA CHUDDA SHAWLS Over a century ago Chudda Shawls were treasured possessions. Of finest silk and wool, woven on handooms by wandering tribes in East India, these Shawls are so line and soft that they are easily drawn through a finger ring. Single and double Shawls in plain white, gray, black, old blue or with exquisite hand embroidered medallions and borders. Prices range from $7.74 to $22.74.

SYRIAN SPANGLED SCARVES

(A Macy Specialty.)

Shimmering spangles of silvered metal are embossed by hand upon fine black or white net. Effective and beautiful as an accessory for evening wear-or combined and made into an evening gown-these Syrian scarves have the barbaric richness that marks the Oriental handiwork. They are made by young maidens, and as there are no set patterns to follow each scarf has an individual charm. No two are alike. Lengths range from 21/2 to 23/4 yards, and prices are from $2.89 to $12.74 each.

SILK and CREPE SHAWLS from JAPAN Embroidered fringed Shawls of fine soft Japanese silks and clinging crepes. A comprehensive assort-ment—in many sizes and at prices ranging from $3.49 to $18.74 each.

Shetland Shawls from England

These are made in England from the fine, soft undyed wool of the Shetland sheep. The lightest, fleeciest Shawls made. These may be used either as a shoulder shawl or a veil. Two yards square in white, 89c and $1.19.
